KODOL

Digests What You Eat.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol

Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c

AN ARTIST'S IDEAL AUTO.

Sir William Richmond's Plan to Build a Car of Beauty.

Sir William Richmond, the Royal Academician of London, thinks the present form of automobile hideously inartistic and the average type of car body as ugly as an omnibus, says the New York American.

To show that an automobile can be made beautiful and graceful in form, Sir William intends designing a model car that shall be simple and artistic, yet inexpensive. He said in an interview:

"The construction of the present automobile gives no appearance of volition, as it should, while at rest the car gives no suggestion of speed. It looks like a permanently stationary object. A bird's beak or a horse's head and shoulders suggest cleaving the air. They give a forward suggestion. Therefore my car will have a prow. It will be broadened in the beam and narrowed in the stern. The driver will sit in the stern, like a steersman. He will sit there in order to give him command of the road, and a heightening rear will contribute artistic lines to my car."

The artist intends to model his ideal car in wax and intends that it shall answer all demands of expediency and usefulness. His plan is characterized by simplicity of line and design. There is to be no ornamentation, and where the unsightly gear cannot be simplified it will be hidden. This beauty of design, Sir William asserts, will not add a cent to the cost. He brings to his task of designing an ideal car the mind of the mechanic, the skilled craftsman and artist combined. Manufacturers are interestedly awaiting the result of Sir William Richmond's task.

A SURPRISE FOR BRITONS.

President's Son in Public School Astonished Mosely Commission.

A discovery which has interested the members of the Mosely English educational commission more, perhaps, than any other made since its visit to Washington was the presence of the son of President Roosevelt as a student in one of the public schools of Washington, says the New York Herald. Until they made this discovery members of the commission seemed to be unable to grasp the thorough democracy of the American public school system. When told that the president's son was a student in a public school, the visiting educators asked Superintendent Stuart how he was able under the American plan to keep that particular school select, so as to regulate the character of the pupils who would be brought into contact with the president's son. When assured there was no effort to make the school select, but that the boy of a blacksmith or of a little grocer was there on terms of perfect equality with the Roosevelt boy, they wondered greatly and at once arranged that that particular school should be one of the places they would visit.

The visitors did visit this school, found everything just as had been described to them and left, as one of them explained, with "a better idea of the meaning of the American democracy."

Osteopathy Recognized.

He who is so biased as not to investigate Osteopathy, should carefully read the following:

Osteopaths Get World's Fair Day.

"The science of Osteopathy is to be duly honored by the managers of the great St. Louis World's Fair. The management has already announced that July 7th, next year, is to be "Osteopathy Day," and it will be so printed on the official program."

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch in commenting on this matter stated "that no manipulation was required in getting the Osteopaths a World's Fair day."

Give Osteopathy a chance at your ailments and eight chances to ten you will get benefits when all other treatments have failed.

You need not have faith in the treatment to be benefitted, for results come by the treatment, and not through your faith.

So let us lay aside our prejudices and investigate, and to that is good hold fast, and that is of no benefit lay aside.

Remember only those who are afflicted suffer by non-investigation and not Osteopathy. Respectfully,
A. A. SPEEGLE, D. O.

Fight Will Be Bitter

Those who will persist closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by Moore & Ballew, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00 Trial bottles free.

Underground Observatories.

It is proposed in France to establish subterranean observatories by drilling miles into the earth with oil well machinery. In these the strata, temperature and gases at various depths would be studied.

The Shortening Days.

Some months ago
The morning glow
Found us in bed yet sleeping.
And we'd not crawl
Out till Old Sol
Was through the window peeping.
We heard sweet notes
From feathered throats
The sunshine gladly greeting.
And off we heard
Some faroff bird
The call of mate repeating.

Then days were long
And light was strong,
Night's shadows long delaying;
Still shone the sun
When work was done,
And there were hours for playing.

But now, alas,
Days quickly pass;
Much later dawn is glowing:
Soon fades away
The light of day,
And nights are longer growing.

No more we hear
The songs once dear
That came without our asking,
For far away
Where long lasts day,
The song birds now are basking.

Soon comes the night
Where hours once bright
The children spent in playing.
And there's no sun
When work is done
To cheer those homeward straying.

So slow the change
It now seems strange
That days so fast are going;
They're getting short
And soon depart,
And nights are longer growing.
—Theodore H. Poole in Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood. Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy. Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the re-inforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polycarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902.

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the first six suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was in a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.
